

(TMI Newsletter – October 18, 2012)

LIFELINE: Service to the Dead AND the Living

As if it weren't obvious, we are thrilled with TMI's "The uneXplained" episodes! It's given us a chance to showcase the power, beauty, and genius of the Lifeline program. But rescue and retrieval work doesn't only happen in a CHEC unit.

Creative uses of Lifeline tools and techniques are the norm among TMI's participants. Here are just a few Participant Stories -

Space Shuttle Columbia Retrieval

Col. Douglas M. Black, USMC, retired

Focus | Summer/Fall 2003

A heartfelt rescue of astronauts.

Read More ... (This article is included in this archive file.)

Lifeline Partnerships: Completing the Circle

Micki Hawes

Focus | Spring 1997 Being called to a retrieval.

Read More ... (This article is included in this archive file.)

Dirk Dunning

Focus | Fall 2002

Joining the rescue work at the World Trade Center

Read More ... (This article is included in this archive file.)

You Never Know What You'll Find at Lifeline

Mary Ann Tilford

Focus | Winter 2001

Responding to the unexpected.

Read More ... (This article is included in this archive file.)

The Bob McC... Incident

Jack Auman

Focus | Spring 1994

Father and son veterans.

Read More ... (This article is included in this archive file.)
